Uttar Pradesh Metro Rail Corporation Limited (UPMRCL) Ticketing is now enabled on the ONDC Network. This integration enables Uttar Pradesh Metro Rail Corporation Limited to offer open ticketing in Lucknow, Kanpur and Agra providing seamless access to ticketing on customer-facing (Buyer apps) applications through the ONDC Network.
The Buyer App and Seller App shall be governed by and operate in accordance with the ONDC Network Participant Agreement and applicable ONDC Network Policies, as amended from time to time. The Buyer–Seller transaction, including the purchase of Metro tickets, fare payment, cancellation, refund, fulfilment and other transaction-related matters, shall be governed by the applicable terms and conditions of sale prescribed by the Seller and accepted by the Buyer through the Buyer App.".

The Buyer Apps shall, as a pre-condition to facilitating the sale of UPMRCL tickets through the ONDC Network, acknowledge, accept and agree to comply with the following terms and conditions prescribed by UPMRCL, including but not limited to the terms and conditions set forth herein.":

Terms and Conditions for Buyer Apps

1. All applications (Buyer Apps) that are interested in offering UPMRCL tickets through their platform/application need to mandatorily onboard the ONDC Network and be compliant with the ONDC Protocol. No Buyer App is permitted to sell the UPMRCL tickets in any other manner through ONDC network without approval of UPMRCL.
2. UPMRCL or Buyer App May offer some discount on the tickets booked online.
3. Buyer Apps, if they decide to charge additional charges from the Commuters over and above the ticket price quoted by the Seller (UPMRCL) as a customer convenience fee, should transparently display it to the commuter as 'App Convenience Fee' subject to approval of UPMRCL.
4. Buyer Apps could, as per their business strategy, choose to offer reduced or zero convenience fees, under title 'App Discount' in order to attract Consumers. However, in such case no convenience fee charges shall be reimbursed by UPMRCL.
5. Buyer Apps could even choose to offer additional discounts on top of the ticket price to customers as part of customer acquisition, at their own expense. However, in all cases, the full ticket amount, less the discount offered by UPMRCL as per Condition 2 above, must be settled with the Respective UPMRCL accounts (Lucknow, Kanpur, Agra) without any deductions.
6. While the Buyer App may use any Payment Gateway from those onboard the ONDC platform, the convenience fee, including MDR charges of the Payment Gateway, would not be reimbursed by UPMRCL under any circumstances. They shall be a part of the App Convenience Fee, if the Buyer App decides to levy the same.
7. UPMRCL reserves the right to change any of these Terms & Conditions or fix certain limits for Convenience fees in future as and when applicable.
8. As per extant RBI Regulations, the ticket transaction amount collected by the Buyer apps is to be settled to the UPMRCL Settlement accounts of Lucknow, Kanpur and Agra on a T+1 basis (Before 1200 Hrs) for all successful transactions.
9. UPMRCL would also use a dashboard provided by ONDC or UPMRC's Technology Service Provider (TSP) to record at the seller's side all the tickets sold by each of the buyer apps.

The buyer apps shall be asked to deposit the amount shown by the dashboard in the event of any reconciliation discrepancy.

10. Buyer Apps must ensure that all customer data collected during the purchase of UPMRCL Tickets are handled in compliance with the applicable data privacy laws, including but not limited to the Information Technology Act, 2000, Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable. The Buyer App is responsible for ensuring the security of payment and personal data of customers using industry standard encryption and security protocols.
11. The Buyer Apps would additionally comply with the refund and cancellation policies of UPMRCL.
12. All Buyer Applications (Buyer Apps) interested in offering UPMRCL tickets to commuters are strictly prohibited from displaying advertisements on UPMRCL tickets or during the entire ticketing process, including booking, entry and exit. If any Buyer App wishes to engage in commercial advertising, prior written permission from UPMRCL is mandatory.
13. Where recourse to a Court is to be made in respect of any matter, the Courts at Lucknow, shall have exclusive jurisdiction to try all disputes.
14. Delay in settlement of Fare Box revenues shall attract a Levy of interest at annual rate of 24% for the delay period which needs to be paid to UPMRCL to avoid further penal charges.
15. If any buyer application repeatedly fails to do settlements within stipulated time, the same shall be disabled/terminated for UPMRCL ticketing.
16. Buyer applications hereby agree to indemnify UPMRCL against its respective parts in case of breach/default of the respective part of the works of any liabilities sustained by them. No claims arising out of such indemnity will be entertained by UPMRCL.
17. At present, UPMRCL does not require a Security Deposit from the Buyer Application. However, UPMRCL reserves the right to seek a Security Deposit in the future based on transaction volume, operational requirements, or risk considerations, by providing due notice to the Buyer Application.
18. User Static Terms – Compulsory to include in ticket booking GUI: The ticket information (METRO QR TICKET) should be in sync with the Buyer app GUI to avoid any passenger inconvenience. Information like
    i. Mobile tickets are valid from the origin station for entry only upto 120 minutes or until the last train, whichever is earlier.
    ii. Refund Information: In case of booking failure, any amount deducted will be refunded within 7 business days as per approved T&C of UPMRCL.
