This Business Partnership Agreement is made between PRS CLOUD TECH PRIVATE LIMITED, a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 2013, with its registered office at Q-16, Mohan Garden, Uttam Nagar, New Delhi, Delhi 110059 (“Lyrakart” or the “Logistics Service Provider” or “LSP”), and the Seller or Buyer Network Participant on the ONDC Network that wants delivery services from Lyrakart (the “Logistics Buyer”). Together, the “Parties”. These terms, with the Confirmation exchanged through the ONDC protocol, govern the relationship.

1. Definitions

Words not defined here have the meaning in the ONDC Network Policy or ONDC Network Participant Agreement. RTS: ready to ship, when the Logistics Buyer marks the order ready for pickup. Pickup: collection of the shipment from the Logistics Buyer’s location. POD: proof of delivery. RTO: return of the shipment to the pickup address. Hyperlocal: delivery within a city or town. Confirmation: the terms exchanged through the ONDC protocol for an order.

2. Services and limits

2.1 Lyrakart provides pickup and delivery in these areas: Delhi NCR: Delhi, Noida, Gurugram, Ghaziabad and Faridabad (pin codes as shown in the app).

2.2 Price is worked out as follows and quoted in the on_search and on_select response: ₹30 for the first 3 km plus ₹8 for each km after that, exclusive of GST.

2.3 Shipment limits: up to 10 kg, longest side up to 50 cm, declared value up to ₹10,000. Items Lyrakart will not carry: illegal goods, weapons, explosive, flammable or hazardous goods, narcotics, alcohol, tobacco, live animals, prescription medicines and cash or valuables. The Logistics Buyer must declare shipment contents and value correctly and must not hand over items that are illegal or prohibited.

2.4 Each Party performs the Order named in the Confirmation. A Party may change its payment account by giving the other at least 5 Business Days notice before the settlement date.

3. Cancellation by the Logistics Buyer before pickup

Case	Description	Resolution
1. Before RTS	Logistics Buyer cancels before the order is marked RTS.	No amount is payable to Lyrakart.
2. After RTS, before pickup	Logistics Buyer cancels after RTS but before pickup.	No fee within 5 minutes of rider assignment. After that, a cancellation fee of ₹30 is payable.

4. Cancellation after pickup, before delivery

Case	Description	Resolution
1. Picked up within the promised time	Logistics Buyer cancels after the shipment is picked up on time.	Logistics Buyer pays the quoted delivery fee and, where the shipment must come back, the RTO charge. No separate cancellation fee is added.
2. Pickup delayed by Lyrakart	Logistics Buyer cancels because Lyrakart missed the promised pickup time.	No amount is payable to Lyrakart.
3. Delivery delayed by Lyrakart	Logistics Buyer cancels because Lyrakart missed the promised delivery time.	No amount is payable to Lyrakart for the cancelled leg; Lyrakart returns the shipment where it holds it.

5. Cancellation by Lyrakart

If Lyrakart cancels after accepting an order for a reason other than the Logistics Buyer's fault, the Logistics Buyer pays nothing. If Lyrakart cancels for the Logistics Buyer's fault (for example wrong address, shipment not ready, prohibited item), the cancellation fee of ₹30 (after a 5-minute grace period from rider assignment) applies.

6. Pickup, delivery attempts and RTO

6.1 Pickup waiting time: 10 minutes.

6.2 Delivery attempts and return to origin: 2 delivery attempts; the rider waits 10 minutes at the drop address; after that the shipment goes back to the pickup point (RTO). If delivery fails because the recipient cannot be reached or refuses, the shipment is marked RTO and the Logistics Buyer pays the delivery fee and RTO charge.

6.3 If RTO also fails because the Logistics Buyer cannot take the shipment back, the Logistics Buyer pays the delivery fee and the RTO charge per attempt.

6.4 Proof of delivery: an OTP given by the recipient; if the OTP cannot be used, a photo and the rider's location.

6.5 Cash on delivery: riders collect cash on delivery for orders up to ₹5,000 and Lyrakart remits it to the Logistics Buyer within 7 days of delivery.

7. Loss and damage

Lyrakart is liable for shipments lost or damaged because of its act or omission, or that of its riders or those it engages, as follows: the declared value of the shipment, up to ₹10,000 per shipment, on proof of the invoice and photographs. The Logistics Buyer must give the invoice and photographs needed to check a claim. Lyrakart is not responsible for the quality, nature or legality of the contents.

8. Issue resolution response times

Lyrakart will respond within these times for each IGM issue sub-category. Issues must be raised by the Logistics Buyer within a reasonable time of the promised delivery time. These times follow the ONDC model.

Category	Sub-category	Code	Lyrakart response time
ORDER	Order not received	ORD01	Respond within 24 hours; resolve within the ONDC time for this sub-category

			category
PAYMENT	Refund not received	PMT01	Respond within 24 hours; resolve within the ONDC time for this sub-category

If Lyrakart does not meet the times, the Logistics Buyer may act, including resolving in the end customer's favour, and may deduct the amount from Lyrakart's settlement for that order.

9. Fees, settlement and tax

9.1 Lyrakart charges the fee in the Confirmation. Fees are exclusive of GST and other applicable tax.

9.2 Settlement: delivery fees are settled 7 days after the order is delivered or returned, net of amounts due. Where Lyrakart collects payment from the end customer, it settles with the Logistics Buyer after deducting its fee as stated in the Confirmation.

9.3 The Logistics Buyer gives a unique reference for each order, used for invoicing. Each Party is responsible for its own GST and tax duties.

9.4 Delay interest: 12% per year on the late amount, from the due date until it is paid.

Further clauses

10. Representations and warranties. Each Party tells the other that: (a) it is validly organised under the laws of India and has the power to enter into and perform this Agreement; (b) it has read and accepts these terms together with the Confirmation exchanged through the ONDC protocol, and they form a binding contract for the transaction; (c) it holds and will keep every licence, approval and registration its business needs; (d) it owns or may lawfully use all intellectual property it uses; (e) the information it gives is true, lawful and accurate; (f) it follows all applicable laws; (g) performing this Agreement does not break any other agreement or law that binds it; (h) it will not defame or disparage the other Party, except where truthful and needed to enforce rights or required by law; and (i) it will follow the ONDC Network Participant Agreement, ONDC Network Policy and other ONDC policies, and will perform its services professionally.

11. Independent parties. The Parties are independent. Neither is the agent, partner, employee or legal representative of the other, and neither can bind the other. Each Party is solely responsible for the acts of its own staff, agents and End Users.

12. Indemnity and liability. Each Party (the Indemnifying Party) will indemnify and hold harmless the other Party and its directors, officers, employees, service providers and agents against losses, costs and expenses (including reasonable legal costs) arising from a third-party claim caused by: (a) the Indemnifying Party's wrongful or negligent act or omission, including sharing wrong or incomplete information; (b) its breach of this Agreement, the ONDC Network Policy or the ONDC Network Participant Agreement; (c) its breach of law; (d) a data breach or data corruption attributable to it; (e) a third-party claim arising from its actions or omissions under this Agreement; or (f) disclosure of Confidential Information against this Agreement. Each Party is liable for loss or damage to shipments caused by it or those it engages, up to the value of the goods involved or the limit stated in the Confirmation (100% of order value, capped at ₹50,000 per order). Each Party is separately liable to End Users and other participants under its own terms.

13. Data protection. The Parties may share personal data of its End Users and shipment details only to fulfil orders (the Specified Purpose). Each Party will comply with the Information Technology Act, 2000 and rules, the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 and its rules, and any other law on personal data. Each will process shared data only as the law and this Agreement allow, will not pass it to third parties unless needed to perform this Agreement, and will not use it for any other purpose without the End User's explicit consent. Each will keep technical and organisational safeguards against unauthorised or unlawful processing, loss, destruction or damage, will make sure staff with access are reliable, and will help the other respond to data requests to the extent the law needs.

14. Confidential information. Each Party will keep the other's non-public business, customer and technical information confidential, use it only for this Agreement, limit access to people who need it, and protect it from misuse or loss. This does not apply to information that is public, already lawfully known, independently developed, or required to be disclosed by law or a court or regulator (in which case the Party will give the other prompt written notice where allowed). This clause continues for 3 years after this Agreement ends or any longer period the law requires.

15. Intellectual property. Each Party keeps its own trademarks, names, logos, content and other intellectual property. A Party may use the other's name or logo only for this Agreement and with the other's prior written approval. Nothing here transfers any right in them.

16. Force majeure. A Party is excused from performing for as long as it is prevented by flood, earthquake, storm, fire, accident, strike, lockout, explosion, war, riot, terrorism, epidemic, government action, a disruption of the ONDC Network or another event beyond its reasonable control. It must promptly notify the other Party in writing.

17. Governing law and jurisdiction. Indian law governs this Agreement. The Parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts at New Delhi, or as stated in the Confirmation.

18. Dispute resolution. The Parties will first try to settle any dispute by good-faith talks. If that does not work within 30 days, the dispute goes to arbitration under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, seated at New Delhi before a sole arbitrator.

19. General. This Agreement and the Confirmation are the whole agreement on their subject. Changes bind a Party only if mutually agreed, except that the Parties may agree the values in the Confirmation for each transaction. Notice of a new version of these terms is given through the ONDC terms fields, with its effective date. This Agreement takes effect when the counterparty accepts the terms in the Confirmation.

Lyrakart is responsible for vehicle and document clearance at check-posts and state borders when carrying goods in the course of its services, where applicable.
